The school's lottery will be conducted as follows: We will accept admissions applications through the year following the State of Utah approved processes and hold all applicants in a "lottery pool" until names are needed to fill openings, unless an applicant removes their application from the process. Please be sure to fill out ALL appropriate information and requested fields before you submit the application. Be sure to double check dates, phone numbers and e-mail addresses. It is imperative for all information to be complete. Be sure to record your confirmation number, which allows you to update important changes as they become necessary. This will also be e-mailed to you automatically.

Admissions and enrollment forms are available through the school only.

The school's calendar for the 2010-2011 school year is available here:
